

Announcement of new Partner at Mazars in Hong Kong

12 April 2021, Hong Kong: Mazars in Hong Kong is pleased to announce the appointment of Adele Yim as the new Partner effective from 12 April 2021.

Adele has more than 15 years of experience combining external audit, management accounting, operations management, internal control review, ESG reporting and enterprise risk assessment. Prior to joining Mazars, she was a Director of Risk Advisory Services in a leading accounting firm.

Adele joined one of the Big Four for a few years after her graduation, where she was responsible for supervising auditors in a number of audit assignments and systems reviews for both listed companies, large private enterprises, as well as listing candidates (i.e. IPO assignments). Adele also worked in the commercial field at the internal audit department of a large hotel group and a large property development company in Hong Kong.

Adele has extensive experience in risk advisory services and got substantial exposure in internal control system reviews which include but are not limited to the fields of trading, manufacturing, retailing, food and beverage, telecommunications, construction engineering, property development and hospitality industries in Hong Kong, Mainland China, Singapore, Malaysia and Japan.

Jimmy Yip, Managing Partner of Mazars in Hong Kong said, "We are pleased to welcome Adele, who is joining Mazars in Hong Kong at a pivotal time. The development of our firm in the risk advisory area will be reinforced with her impeccable leadership and deep expertise."
