

New Financial Services Consulting Partner strengthens technology consulting practices at Mazars in Hong Kong

Mazars in Hong Kong is pleased to announce the appointment of Jonathan Wan as a Partner to the Financial Services consulting team, which further enhances its financial services practice across different business areas.

With more than 20 years of experience in the financial services sector, Jonathan is experienced in technology integration, corporate strategy, risk management, new market development and business transformation. His extensive track records covered a wide spectrum of local and international institutions on the establishment of their strategic, finance & IT transformation and GRC frameworks.

Before joining Mazars, Jonathan held roles in Big 4 firms as well as the Hong Kong Exchange and Clearing, American Express & Chow Tai Fook. He also offers a wealth of experience in ERP and GRC business and systems analysis.

Ernest Yiu, Partner and Head of Financial Services at Mazars in Hong Kong, said: “Jonathan has proven his ability with his excellent client relationships and valuable leadership in establishing an internal management and business transformation. His wide range of financial services experience, especially his IT consulting experience, will be a great addition to our team.”

Rudi Lang, Global Head of Financial Services at Mazars and a member of Mazars Group Executive Board, said: “Jonathan's appointment underpins our commitment to invest further in our financial services practice in Asia Pacific, and reflecting Hong Kong's significance as a leading financial centre.”
