The clients of Mazars in the Philippines will benefit from comprehensive, state-of-the-art services in consulting. Additionally, we believe that there are the right talents in the Philippines to ensure the Mazars outsourced solutions are executed with high quality and value-added. Therefore, we plan to develop our first off-shored talent services factory for our European, Asian and American offices.”*

Mélanie De Baets, Senior Manager in charge of the European and US desk adds: *“Our international and entrepreneurial roots combined with a personalised approach ensure that we act as a bridge between businesses in the Philippines and related companies overseas.
